This list is most beneficial to those who plan on having different people meet the bus, or who may run late on a regular basis. Parents/Guardians may also call us to let us know if someone different will be at the bus stop on that day, and we'll alert the driver.

Please remember that if we do not have authorization from you to release the student to someone we don't know, your child will be brought back to school.

SIBLINGS: If you approve of your kindergarten child going home with older siblings, so that you do not need to be at the bus stop, please check here  Please note if the siblings are not on the bus, you must meet your child at the bus stop.
